Hello

To clarify

All of the details are below.

I am living in the UK. I am not in India. Vihaan is in India. An incident has not happened as of now, however Vihaan is in danger at his coaching centre.

Hello

Hope you are well

I am following up my recent request about the safety of my best friend, Vihaan, who currently lives in Mumbai

I am deeply concerned for his safety and am frankly very disappointed that this has not been even remotely followed up.

Here are some facts I think it would be deeply beneficial for you to know

Vihaan's full name is Vihaan Natekar. His email address is dis.vihaan.natekar@gmail.com

Vihaan is being relentlessly bullied at school and has been for months- and much of this entails EXTREME physical violence. He is not safe, in the slightest, and this also extends to his after school classes (Vihaan is looking to enter MBBS in India, so he's preparing for the NEET entrance exam.)

I am disgusted that no one at his school- not even his teachers- care even in the slightest to ask him what's going on or what is happening. He has, repeatedly, come home crying, after school, and has suffered physical injuries at school.

He goes to after school classes for his NEET preparation. The classes, as he has told me, are

A 5 minute auto ride from his home.

Vihaan is tracked (on find my iPad) when he goes to and from these classes and also

from school

He is bullied here too, and his life, in his and in my opinion, is in DANGER IF YOU DO NOT TAKE APPROPRIATE ACTION.

Some facts for you to know

Vihaan is extremely premature (was born at 25 weeks gestation), is short for his age (only around 153 cm), and has a warm, gentle, deeply affectionate, caring, protective, non confrontational personality. He isn't in any way reflective of how typical Indian boys his age (16) are preparing for NEET. He's awesome. He is really kind and I don't like seeing him getting hurt the way he is.

These are, in his and in my opinion- risk factors. They explain why he is being bullied at school and at his after school classes for NEET.

Vihaan has a very supportive home environment. The problem is not at home, but is at school and at coaching where he is very unsafe and other boys, who are giants compared to him- physically hurt him and bully him.

He has repeatedly come home very scared and upset, and crying, and has suffered physical injury at school twice now repeatedly, including injuries to the head and stomach.

He tells me there are no teachers in school who care about him or his bullying, which is gravely concerning.

i am his best friend and I am deeply deeply deeply concerned for his safety

As an Indian myself I know full well that you will deal with this promptly and you take this matter very seriously in India

So please

Could you email Vihaan directly, and check in on him for me please.

Thank you
